Dear Frank

I am in want of a copy of your father's speech made in Edinburgh on the "Freedom of the city occasion". I want to copy from it a few sentences of the part in which he so handsomely awards a large share of the honors to his associates. Can you furnish me with the speech, or the part of it pertinent for my purpose?
If you can I will, at your earliest convenience you will greatly oblige Your friend

Thos McKinn
